WITH the advent of the new season we are ready to receive the crops of our friends, and to offer them our service in the storage and sale of their cotton. Our experience demonstrated the necessity of this change of base, and particularly as Atlanta is one of the best interior cotton markets of the South. This is due chiefly to her position being on the direct route from the producing States to the large seaport markets, and to the three roads to New York, Savannah, Charleston and Norfolk, all of which are direct and satisfactorily used. The importance of this point as a cotton market was, during the last season, fully developed by the New York buyers, with the most extensive purchases, which, with the most satisfactory shipping facilities, enabled them in most instances to realize from 1 to 2 cents per pound higher prices for their consignments, than could have been obtained by planters for their crops to more distant points.
The members of our firm are men of large experience in cotton, and have had men of large capacity. Our warehouses, covering an area of large dimensions, connect in the most convenient manner with the railroad tracks, and are fire proof, and will be guarded by night watchmen. Insurance will be effected on cotton in store, at such rates as we are authorized to offer.

FOR TWENTY YEARS we have served you, we believe faithfully. Our success depends upon your prosperity, hence we have zealously sought to promote your interest and advanced it by every means in our power. As Commission Merchants, we again tender you our services at our old stand, which has withstood the flames of a burning square (thereby proving its security), and where we hope to merit the very liberal patronage always given us.
The sale of Cotton is our speciality. We flatter ourselves none can excel us. To old friends we return thanks; to new ones, we say try us, we will try to please you.

MACON GA.
THIS long and well known Hotel, with its unequaled system, still presents itself to the travelling public.
The house was opened on the 1st of January, 1866, and took at once a prominent position among the first class" Hotels of the country. It has never been closed since, but it has been steadily increasing in prosperity, till it acknowledges no successful rival in the business in the State.
Recent improvements and refurnishing of the house, which is still in the hands of the Proprietors, have left nothing to be desired by those who love their ease and enjoy the comforts and luxuries of life. The Hotel is admirably situated for the convenience of the travelling public, being situated opposite the Passenger Depot, and but a few steps from the same. It has a retinue of well trained servants in every department, and the Proprietors will spare no pains or expense to sustain the established reputation of the Hotel. Special attention paid to the wants of lady guests, who may sojourn at the House, and none shall go away dissatisfied, if an earnest en leavor to please will secure a liberal share of the public patronage.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO COTTON.
Liberal advances made on Consignments to us for sale, or Shipment to our friends in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York or Liverpool.
Wishing to aid our Planter friends in their efforts to secure for themselves the full benefit of their Cotton Crops, we have determined to make advances on Cotton consigned to us on the following easy terms:
On Cotton, for sale at discretion, advances seventy-five (75) per cent. of its market value, charging interest on the advance until the Cotton is sold at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.
On Cotton, to be held Thirty Days, advancing fifty (50) per cent. of market value, charging the regular commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum.
On Cotton, to be held Sixty Days, fifty (50) per cent. of its market value, charging commission for advancing, 2½ per cent., and interest on the advance at the rate of one (1) per cent. per month.
On all cases the advance will be based upon the market value of the Cotton on the day it reaches us.

EVENING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, NOVEMBER 7.

DON'T STEAL ME, for I am private property, bought and paid for by a subscriber, one who sustains the press and wants to read me.

DON'T BORROW ME, for my owner don't like it, and, besides, the machine will turn you out a copy just like me for three cents and a half, and you ought to sustain the press. Go and subscribe, and keep your conscience easy.

The Mayoralty.

We commend the following timely, sensible, and judicious article to the attention of our readers:

Colonel Styles: Your timely and judicious editorial, which appeared in your paper of the 31st ult., is worthy of the consideration of every citizen of Atlanta. You have spoken out, in my opinion, the sentiments and feelings of nine-tenths of the free, independent, unprejudiced voters of our city. The growing popularity of Atlanta abroad, its enterprising merchants and mechanics, its wide-spread fame as a central railroad city, and greatest of all, it now being the seat of Government, must give it character and advantages which cannot be surpassed by any other Southern city. These facts, with many others, which might be offered, will at once convey to the mind of every thinking man, the importance of selecting for this responsible office, a man of great dignity of character, of unbiassed mind, and of such stern and unflinching determination to do right irrespective of party considerations, or preconceived schemes to subserve particular friends, makes it an issue of no small importance. We want a man whose moral character has never been questioned and whose financial abilities will render fully capable of every emergency connected with his office, and whenever called upon for his opinion connected with the interest of the city, will readily and independently give it, without being fearful of losing some little popularity with any particular clique, whose favors are paramount to any other consideration with him. We don't want a mere politician. It is not necessary in order to have a good Mayor, he must be a very prominent politician, a man who has done much for his party. We want the man who can do the most for the city, and has brains enough to elevate it above its present difficulties financially. Neither do we want a policy-man. Such men generally follow the bent of their own inclinations irrespective of everybody else's interest, so it comes up to their line of policy. I trust when the nomination is made, that every citizen will be present and support no man for the office who is not fully qualified by education and morals, to honor the position he seeks, and do full justice to the poor as well as the rich. "Let us act as a band of brothers" for the best interests of the city, in selecting a man of moral character and intelligence.

A CITIZEN.

AFTER THE ELECTION.—The election, and political probabilities resulting therefrom, says a special dispatch to the Louisville, Courier dated Washington, November 4th, is mainly discussed to-day. Radicals, of course, are in a high state of jubilation. Singularly enough, Democrats are not greatly downcast. The latter profess the hopefulness that Grant's administration will prove conservative in character, and as such, displeasing to the intense Radicals. It is held by them, and also by moderate Republicans, that Grant will not acquiesce in the abominable doctrines of Sumner & Co., and out of this division good results will come.

Referring to the disposition of Democrats to console themselves with this thought, the Star, Republican, says: We apprehend there is more solid foundation for this philosophy on the part of the minority than most Republicans would suppose. Not that we think General Grant will ever place himself upon the Democratic platform or formally leave that framed at Chichago; from the very nature of things, however, it is impossible for any President to satisfy the more ultra of his ante-election supporters, and in addition to this inherent general difficulty, we do not doubt that President Grant's administration will naturally and intentionally turn towards moderate and conservative measures. So, after all, the Democrats may not be disappointed.

☞A special dispatch to the Louisville Courier dated Washington, November 4th, says "when will Grant resign his position in the army, is a question readily propounded but not easily answered. A member of his staff, however, expresses the opinion that he will not resign before March.

"It is definitely settled that Congress will not convene until December, General Grant having so advised."

FLORIDA ELECTION.—A Special dispatch to the Morning News, dated Tallahassee, Florida, Nov. 3, says the Legislature of this State convened to-day at 12 o'clock, and proceeded to vote for Presidential electors, with the following result: The Republican ticket received thirty votes and the Democratic ticket nine votes. Seven men of the Legislature who [illegible] old office under the republican [illegible] State Government, and of course are not entitled to their seats, or the right to vote.

WHOSE GOVERNOR IS HE?—Less than half the negroes, and a motly crew of white-skinned nondescripts, called carpet baggers and scalawags, numbering less than 10,000, have the honor of claiming Bullock as their Governor. All the decent and honest people repudiate him as a fraudulently begotten and forcibly conceived monstrosity.

The Riot of Tuesday—Death of Policeman Bryson—Policeman Read Not Expected to Live.

From the Savannah News, 5th.]

Yesterday morning about ten o'clock, policeman Samuel Bryson, who was wounded in the riot at the Court House, on Tuesday, drew his last breath. He was shot in the shoulder, the ball passing through to the back and taking a downward course, striking the spinal column. He suffered very little, being paralyzed. And thus a brave and gallant officer lost his life, as a consequence of the mischievous teachings of the Radicals who put the negroes up to fighting the whites.

Policeman Bryson was a member of the police force for several years. He was a very quiet, gentlemanly person, and one of the best policemen in the service of the city. During the late war he served in the Confederate army, and was a brave and gallant soldier. He was a great favorite among his comrades on the force, among whom his loss is deeply regretted.

An inquest was held on the remains by Coroner Harden, and the jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death from gunshot wounds inflicted during the riot at the Court House on Tuesday, by some person to the jury unknown.

The funeral of deceased will take place this morning at half past ten o'clock.

Policeman Read, who was shot in the pit of the abdomen, was reported in a dying condition last evening. Policeman Dignou and McMahon are doing well.

Mr. John Haupt and Mr. R. A. Wayne are both seriously injured, but their wounds are not considered dangerous.

The surgeons have been unable, as yet, to find the ball which entered Miss Sallie Kolclock's limb. It is supposed to have taken a downward course towards the foot.

With regard to the affair on the Ogeechee, Captain Prendergast fought until the ammunition of the party was expended, when he was compelled to fall back. In the tumult and confusion it was not noticed that Mr. Law was missing from the detachment until they were some hundred yards away from the scene. The unprovoked attack upon the whites by the negroes occurred about two miles from the city, in a place where the road is lined by embankments, and in the darkness which prevailed, the negroes had the advantage in every respect. When Mr. Law was reported missing, Mr. Robert Falligant, attended by three mounted policemen, went in search of him, determined, if he had been killed, to recover his body at all hazards. When they got out on the road the moon was shining brightly, and the body of Mr. Law was found in the middle of the road, at the place where the fight occurred, with the face downwards. Mr. Falligant lifted the body up on his horse and brought it to the city. No negroes were seen by this party.

An inquest was held over the remains yesterday by Coroner Harden. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that deceased came to his death by gunshot wounds received at the hands of parties who were led on by one Aaron Alpeoria Bradley. A post mortem examination was made by Drs. Myers and Harden. Mr. Law had been shot in the heart with a load of buck and small shot, and the muzzle of the gun must have been very close to his body when fired, as the wound was a fearful one.

One gentleman, who was in Capt. Prendergrast's detachment, had his horse shot. Many of the negroes must have been shot. We heard of one who was seen at Kingsville badly wounded.

The Negroes on the Ogeechee and Louisville Roads—They Express Their Determination to Come Into the City—The White People Taking Refuge in the City.

The city continued in a state of great excitement during yesterday. The organized citizens and police guarded the head of the Ogeechee road during Tuesday night, while armed patrols marched through the streets of the city at frequent intervals.

Yesterday the people were further greatly excited by the reports and rumors which were circulated freely. White men prepared to spend another night in the field. The colored people were very quiet, but some of their most prominent men declared that the trouble was not all over yet.

Last evening the rumors which had been so freely circulated received authentic confirmation. A lady, Mrs. Crawford, residing six miles out on the Ogeechee road, came in and said that the negroes were massing on the road, fully and completely armed. She feared for her life and fled to the city. Mr. John Sloan, a butcher in the market, who resides out in the country, started home by way of the Ogeechee road. He was met by a negro and ordered back. Two men who came in from the country, over the same road, stated that they passed about two hundred armed negroes a few miles from town who stopped them, and asked for sugar cane, and said that they were coming in town last night.

On the Louisville road the negroes heavily armed, were seen coming from the city, and from all directions about the country, and massing on Wetter's plantation. They stated that they were going to organize and march across, and escort "Mr. Bradley into the city."

A citizen from that direction came into the city, having deserted his home as unsafe. Other parties who attempted to go out on the two roads mentioned above, were stopped and turned back. There was no doubt but that a heavy force of armed negroes was assembled in that section, and that Bradley was with them.

Two negro women, last evening, brought to Mayor Anderson a letter from Bradley, in which he stated that his life was threatened, and he claimed the protection of the civil authorities. The reports of his having been in the city were incorrect; but his effects were moved from the house, at the corner of Broughton and Lincoln streets.

Last evening the streets were filled with citizens, who were in readiness to be called upon in case of necessity. A heavy force of armed citizens were sent out to watch the Ogeechee and Louisville roads, who remained there until half-past eleven o'clock, when they were relieved by the police. Up to the hour of writing no trouble has occurred. Citizens were on the alert all night long, ready for any alarm.—Savannah News, November 5th.

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.—To-day we gather bright and beautiful flowers—to-morrow they are faded and dead.

To-day a wealth of leaves shades us—to-morrow, sere and fallen, they crumble beneath our tread.

To-day the earth is covered with carpet of green—to-morrow it is the withered grass. The stalk only bends to-day the ripening fruit and waving grain—to-morrow "the land is taking its rest after the toil."

To-day we hear the sweet songsters of meadows and forest the buzz and hum of myriad insects; to-morrow—breathe softly—all nature is hushed and silent.

To-day a stately edifice, complete in finish and surrounding, attracts the gazer by—to-morrow a heap of ruins mark the site.

To-day there are cattle on a thousand hills—to-morrow they fall in slaughter.

The fashion of the world passeth away. But let Christ dwell within us, and though we may pass away like the faded leaf and sapless stalk, we shall arise to newness of life.

Where everlasting spring abides,
And never withering flowers.

U. S. Circuit Court for the Southern District of Georgia.

THURSDAY, November 5, 1868.

The United States Circuit Court, for the Southern District of Georgia, November term, met yesterday.

After the assembling of the Court Judge Erskine informed the gentlemen of the bar, that, on the 26th ultimo he received a letter from the Chief Justice of the United States, stating that although much pressed by his public duties, at Washington, he could be present to preside in this Court at its opening, leaving to Judge E., however, the decision of the matter. Judge E.'s reply by telegram was that the presence of the Chief Justice was not absolutely necessary before the April term; at which time he was glad to assure the bar that this eminent magistrate would be present as the presiding Judge of this court.—The Judge further remarked that, notwithstanding this, if counsel should desire him to do so, he would feel it to be his duty to try some of the very important causes now before the Court; or such causes might, on motion and by consent of counsel for both parties litigant, be contined until the April term.

The Issue Calendar was called, and the following cases disposed of:

Tripler, Combs & Co. vs. Crane & Graybill; settled.

FIRST WARD DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—A meeting of the Democracy of the First Ward will be held at the store of A. K. Scago, on Tuesday evening, the 10th inst., at 7½ o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Aldermen for the First Ward.

J. G. MITCHELL,
President 1st Ward Democratic Club.

THE question has been frequently asked, why is P. H. Snook & Co.'s store always crowded with ladies? Any one reading Sunday's edition can see for themselves. They are receiving goods daily from large auction sales North and South, and bankrupt sales all over the country, and advertise them liberally, as you can perceive by to-day's impression.

REDWINE & FOX have an elephant. Most men would not know what to do with the animal, but they did—they put him in THE CONSTITUTION. If you doubt, just turn to another column. Dr. Livingstone, the famous African explorer, is now engaged in the interest of this enterprising firm, having agreed to furnish 10,000 tusks yearly to their British agents, to be manufactured into shoe brushes expressly for the Georgia trade.

RAISINS, Nuts, Oysters, Lobsters, and all kinds of Canned Fruits, and everything in the Confectioners line can be found at

G. W. JACK & Co.'s.

AIR LINE RAIL ROAD.—A meeting of citizens has been called at Atlanta, to take place to-morrow. The President of the Road will present very important matter for consideration. As this is an enterprise in which the city is most deeply interested, we trust that there may be a large attendance. And some prompt and determined action taken looking to the advancement of the work.

We refer with pleasure to the notice of Hon. M. W. Villipigue, published in this issue. This accomplished lady, whose splendid musical attainments are universally acknowledged by the best judges, will, in addition to her duties at the Medical College, take charge of a private class during the first of December. We recommend her to all in search of a first class musical education.

Our Mr. Rondeau has returned to his home in New Orleans, and will keep us supplied with all the novelties for which that city is noted; consequently we offer greater inducements for the coming week, to make room for a large and splendid stock of holiday goods, to be purchased at bankrupt sales now advertised in Louisiana.

P. H. SNOOK & Co.

Mr. Editor: As the time is near at hand when the citizens of Atlanta are to nominate a candidate for Mayor, and as this is a matter in which every citizen is more or less interested, we would respectfully call attention to Col. W. M. Ashley, as a suitable man to fill that office. His ability, his energy, his identity of interest, and his impartiality toward any and all, in our judgment, eminently qualify him for the duties of this office. Subject to the nomination of the Democracy of Atlanta, we respectfully place his name before the Convention for the purpose of selecting a candidate for that office.

Daily and Weekly
By J. R. SNE[illegible]

THE undersigned is pleased to announce to his friends and the public that he has again come in possession of this time-honored journal, and expects to devote his whole time to making it, as a newspaper, second to none in the South. The liberal patronage of the past and better years, while the REPUBLICAN was under his charge, encourages him to hope that by prompt and continued support the public will enable him to carry this purpose into effect.

To the MERCHANTS of the South, and especially of his own State, he looks with confidence for a general support, promising them, in return, the best news, commercial and political journal that his experience and capabilities can produce.

The Weekly Republican

Designed more especially for the planting community, and others who have not the privilege of a daily mail, will be found to contain all the news of the week condensed into a small compass, and by the close of the year we expect to issue it on a large and imperial sheet of eight pages, to contain more reading matter than any paper in the South.

ROME.

...l, Political, and Military Affairs in the Eternal City.

...ROME, Oct. ...1868.—I have already informed you ... the very beginning ... news ... was going on in Spain ... produced ... and painful impression at the ... where the Pope eagerly ... at the ... Carlo's telegrams from Madrid ... as they arrived, and the public agencies' dispatches when private intelligence failed. His ... business immediately complied with ... queen's message imploring him to insert in his daily celebration ... here was ... from Madrid ... newspapers ... As to her Majesty's taking refuge in the Eternal City, it has been surmised that in so moral a court as that of Pio Nono some objection might be made to her bringing the Intendant Marfori with her, and she certainly would not come without him; but it must be recollected that her grandmother, wife of Carlos IV., who came to Rome with her husband in the beginning of this century and resided here for ten or twelve years, until her death, which took place in the ..., met with no such scruple on the part of that enlightened Pontificate, but enjoyed uninterruptedly the society of her favorite factotum, the Principe della Pace (anglice, Prince of Peace,) who left as a memorial of his prolonged sojourn in these parts a very large palace at Albano, a delightful situation, which is still called by his name.

It is certain that the Pope has conferred with his maestro di casa, Commandatore Spagna, as to the preparations which it would be necessary to make at the Quirinal Palace for the reception of the royal fugitive, with her husband, family, and suite; but, according to another report, a grand Bourbon gathering is to be effected by her Majesty taking up her residence in ... Farnese Palace, where the State ... ments are being prepared for her by ... King of Naples. Should Isabella ... the example of Pius IX. at Gaeta and ... n around her the diplomatic representatives accredited to her at Madrid, the ...pal Nuncio will of course attend her; ...t if not, he will be recalled from Madrid. ... his great regret no doubt, as he has ...arcely had time to derive any pecuniary ...enefit from his appointment, which is the most lucrative mission on the Pope's diplomatic list.

The Spanish revolution deprives the Holy See of a support which it felt certain of obtaining from any conservative Minister in power at Madrid, and leaves the Pope more than ever at the mercy of France. The Queen Maria Sophia of Naples arrived in Rome on the 3d inst., and yesterday assisted at the festive family demonstrations in honor of her husband's name day, the 4th being sacred to St. Francis, his patron saint. The Queen's health is still very bad, and she was so much exhausted by her sea voyage that she was obliged to rest two days in the delegate's palace at Civita Vecchia before coming on to Rome.

A new offering has arrived at Civita Vecchia from the Catholic committees of France, consisting of two steam lanches ordered at Toulon last February and constructed in the government arsenal. These ...ats are each to carry one gun and ten ..., and will be employed in watching ...Tiber from the Italian frontier at Cor... the river's mouth at Fiumicino, ...e introduction of hostile men and arms ...to the Pope's dominions by way of the ...ber—a imminent danger of which the ...rnment of his Holiness persists in as...ng, not crediting—is also to be ...arded against by the establishment ...sters in huts on the river's ...gh it is not likely that the ... will ever have an opp...rating such an astounding ...at which Spain has just ef...meration on its force will ...strate the maritime resour...ficial government. His ...nsists of thirteen vessel...on) carrying 280 men, ...d by Captain Alessandro ...the most distinguished ...engineers of Italy and ...esteemed work recently ...the action of the waves of ...on the list is the Papal yacht ...a Concezione, a screw steamer, impro... termed a corvette, built in Engla... and carrying engines of 150 horse power and eight guns. The interior is fitted up for temporary occupation by the Pope in case it should ever be agreeable or necessary for his Holiness to undertake a sea voyage, which is very unlikely beyond an afternoon's cruise off Civita Vecchia or Porto d'Anzo. Then we have the steamer San Pietro, forty-horse power, ...; San Giuseppe and Blaske, each ...power and two guns; the two ...just arrived, and seven sail... On the 3d a merchant ...Civita Vecchia from Ant... Remington rifles of Liege man...2,000 barrels of powder and as ...lead. On the same day and yes...sixty-seven recruits arrived for the ...Zouaves. A sergeant of artillery, ...Rampont, has been arrested on sus...of an intention to poison the men ...ction. He had applied to several ...s for arsenic to destroy, as he said, ...in the barricks, who gnawed the ...balls; but no chemist consented ...sell him the poison without due authorization.

Gen. Kan... has a project for fortifying the Pon... coasts by means of floating ...s, the restoration of the medi... original constructed to pre...ean invasions, but which now ...only a series of picturesque ruins ...own the Mediterranean coast of Italy. The engineer and artillery officers, Cairoli and Lana, have been sent to inspect the coast and report the possibility of the plan.

I mentioned in my last letter that the trial of the prisoners implicated in the blowing of the Serristori barracks and the attempts on those of Camarga and the Castle of St. Angelo concluded on the 27th ult., with the condemnation to death of Monti and Tognetti, two others to the galleys for life, five for twenty years, and two for ten years. The advocates for the defence appealed against several irregularities of the trial, and the tribunal consequently, instead of entering the vacation customary during this month, resumed their sitting for the revision of the sentence on the 1st of October, and it is expected that their deliberation will not be concluded before a fortnight nor be prolonged beyond that period, being merely matter of form; whereas the fate of the prisoners is fully decided, and the execution of those condemned to death already arranged, as far as is known, for the 22d inst., the anniversary of the crime for which they are to suffer. The prisoners implicated in the defense of Ajani's house in Trastevere are to be tried in November.

In the Pope's letter ad omnes Protestantes aliosque acatholicos inviting them to consider the errors of their ways on the occasion of the approaching council it must not be supposed that the expression acatholicos means Jews, Mussulmans and Pagans in contradistinction to Protestants, but only such denominations of the latter as are not organized in regular churches, such as the anglo-Episcopalian, Scotch, Swedish, Lutheran, Calvanist, etc.; but practicing worship in scattering and headless sects.

BUSINESS FOR THE UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—The November term of the United States Circuit Court commences today. There are two hundred and sixty-one cases entered upon the Appearance Calendar; two hundred and seventy-seven on the Trial Calendar, and forty-eight upon the Equity Docket. There are some very important cases among these; the great bank suits being included among the number on the Appearance Calendar.

Besides these cases there will be a number that have been transferred or removed from the United States District Court.—Savannah News.

THE CONSTITUTION is intensely DEMOCRATIC; and neither pains, enterprise, nor money will be spared, in the efforts of the Proprietors, to make it a leading organ, and one of the first papers in the South.

THE CONSTITUTION has scarcely laid aside its baptismal robes, and yet its circulation is equal to, if not greater, than any political paper in Georgia. This unparalleled success is mainly attributable to the industry and enterprise which have characterized its management.

As its name imports, it is battling for the Constitution and the liberties of the people; and the patronage it has received, assures the Proprietors that [illegible] labors are appreciated, and their policy endorsed.

As an advertising medium, THE CONSTITUTION is, perhaps, superior to any paper published in the State, its circulation being confined to no particular locality, but extending from one end of the State to the other, and from the Savannah to the Chattahoochee.

The Proprietors intend no relaxation of their energy, but will add new features of interest and more vigorous enterprise as patronage increases; and they hope in future, as in the past, to merit the good will and plaudits of their numerous readers.

The excellent remedies of O. S. Prophitt, M. D., need no recommendation. Their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern Climate, having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons living in the South are predisposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Anti-Bilious Pills and Liver Medicine strike directly at its root and cure it. They cure that Liver-aches, Coughs, Dyspepsia, Chills, at the bottom of the tradition, Constipation, Sallow Complexion, Headache, &c., &c., and never cause any prostration. Nearly all the sudden deaths of every kind, PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL IT like chaff before the wind.

NEWSPAPER FOR SALE!

THE ALBANY

TRI-WEEKLY NEWS

IS OFFERED FOR SALE!

FINDING IT IMPOSSIBLE TO RUN BOTH THE CONSTITUTION and the NEWS, without fatal neglect to one or the other, I propose to sell the latter.

The NEWS is in a flourishing condition, having a liberal Circulation, and as much Advertising Patronage as it can accommodate. It has yielded handsome profits since I purchased it in October last; and in practical hands, with vigor in its editorial management, can be made the best paying paper in Georgia. There is a well appointed

Job Office Attached,

And the Job Work of the City will run the establishment at eighty-mangold.

There are two PRESSES, one of Hoe's Drum Cylinder, and one Washington Hand Press in good order, and material enough to run a Daily and Weekly. I will sell on liberal terms if application is made within a Thirty Days.

Fall and Winter Dry Goods.

JOHN M. GANNON,

(Corner WHITEHALL and HUNTER Streets.)

I AM just in receipt of the following splendid line of Goods, which he has carefully selected, and will dispose of at prices that cannot fail to give satisfaction:

DRESS GOODS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

A great variety of Cloaks and Shawls; a splendid line of Blankets and Flannels, with stock of Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Embroideries, Breakfast Shawls, Nubias, Scarfs, Ladies' Under Vests, Gloves, Hoops and Balmoral Skirts, Irish Linens, Birdseye Diapers, Table Linen, Scotch Diapers, Towels, Brood Cloths, Cassimeres, English Tweeds, Satinets, Kentucky and North Carolina Jeans, Prints, Sheetings, Shirtings, Denims, Stripes, Tickings, Osnaburgs, Linseys, Drills, Checks and everything kept in a first class Dry Goods store.

ONE PRICE ONLY.

It affords me pleasure to be able to state that this system has been a complete success and gives general satisfaction to my customers. For the benefit of those who have not been in the habit of doing business with me, I state that there is only one price for every article sold in my store, so that there is no danger of any person being overcharged for goods under any circumstances—in other words—all persons can purchase goods in my store as cheap as the closest judge. I wish it distinctly understood that if any goods purchased in my establishment fail to come up to representation, they can be returned and the money will be refunded.

All consumers of dry goods are invited to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.
